Call for Getman and Villa Award Nominations

Nominations are being accepted for the annual Margaret T. Getman and William J. Villa Service to Students Awards. The awards, named for the former dean of students and former director of admissions, respectively, recognize university staff and faculty members and departments that have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to the general growth and development of students and the quality of student life.

The nominees and recipients will be honored with a reception on Thursday, June 5, at the Student Affairs divisional meeting at Corwin Pavilion.

More information about the awards, including nomination forms are available at http://www.sa.ucsb.edu/getman/Home.aspx. Forms must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Monday, April 21.

Questions can be directed to Natalie Gomez at gomez@sa.ucsb.edu or to Debbie Fleming at fleming@sa.ucsb.edu.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
