

UC SANTA BARBARA

THE Current

October 28, 1998

Lillian Kurosaka

UCSB WELCOMES STUDENTS' FAMILIES TO THE SEASIDE CAMPUS

The University of California, Santa Barbara will open its campus to the families of undergraduate students on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 6 and 7, for Parents' Weekend. Faculty, students, and staff will present an eclectic mix of activities to give parents and other family members a glimpse of academic and social life at UCSB.

On Friday, scheduled events include: attending classes with their UCSB student; campus tours; a UCSB men's basketball team practice session at 2:30 p.m. in the Events Center; a social to meet faculty members and administrators at 4 p.m. at the Faculty Club; and student-directed, one-act plays at the Studio Theater at 8 p.m. On Saturday, scheduled events include: Chancellor Henry T. Yang will host a complimentary continental breakfast in Cheadle Plaza at 9 a.m.; faculty presentations that range in topic from earthquakes to bilingualism and the brain from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Buchanan Hall rooms; and adventure ropes course from 2 to 5 p.m. in room 2120 Robertson Gymnasium.

Parents' Weekend schedule of events is at web site <http://www.ia.ucsb.edu/pfw/>. For information, call 893-7382 or e-mail parent@instadv.ucsb.edu.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.