

UC SANTA BARBARA

THE Current

May 1, 2001

Bill Schlotter

UCSB's Sedgwick Reserve to Host June Performance of Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'

The play will only be part of the thing Saturday, June 2 when UCSB's Sedgwick Reserve in the Santa Ynez Valley presents an outdoor evening picnic capped by a sunset performance of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream," by The Subterranean Theatre Company of Santa Monica.

Guests will begin assembling in the reserve's amphitheater at about 5 p.m.

The play will begin at about 6:30 p.m.

There is no charge for the event, but registration is requested and can be made by calling (805) 686-1941.

Donations for the theater group will be accepted.

It is recommended that attendees bring blankets and chairs along with their picnic meals.

For further information, contact reserve outreach coordinator Nancy Emerson at (805) 686-1941.

Sedgwick Reserve is run by the UC Santa Barbara office of the University of California Natural Reserve System.

Photos of Sedgwick Reserve are available by contacting Emerson at (805) 686-1941.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.