UCSB Co-Sponsors Fall Rummage Sale in Isla Vista

The first annual GIVE fall rummage sale will be held on Sunday, November 22, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the parking lot of UC Santa Barbara's Embarcadero Hall at 935 Embarcadero del Norte in Isla Vista.

Used clothing and shoes donated by UCSB students will be priced from 50 cents to $3. UCSB's Housing & Residential Services has donated 400 twin-size blankets (80 percent wool/20 percent synthetic), which will be sold for $2 each, or three blankets for $5.

Thirty student desks from the residence halls will be sold for $10 each.

Proceeds from the sale will benefit Isla Vista Youth Projects, Isla Vista Teen Center, Isla Vista Community Network, and the Optimist Club at UCSB, all longstanding organizations that provide a wide variety of services to children and families in Isla Vista.

The GIVE fall sale is sponsored by the Isla Vista/UCSB Liaison Office and UCSB Housing & Residential Services, in collaboration with Isla Vista After School Grant.

Numerous UCSB student and community volunteers will staff the event.

For more information, contact Catherine Boyer, the Isla Vista/UCSB liaison, at (805) 893-4979 or by e-mail at catherine.boyer@sa.ucsb.edu.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
