

UC SANTA BARBARA

THE Current

February 19, 2010

George Foulsham

Goleta Police, UCSB Officials Warn of Fraudulent Solicitations

Goleta police officials are asking the public to contact them if anyone approaches their homes soliciting donations for the UC Santa Barbara orchestra or choir.

Paul Berkowitz, chair of UCSB's Department of Music, said he has been receiving numerous reports of people posing as students going door-to-door in Goleta and Santa Barbara and telling residents that they are seeking donations to finance a trip for the UCSB orchestra and choir.

"This is not true," Berkowitz said. "It's a complete fraud. There is no such tour and no fundraising or solicitations being organized by the UCSB Symphony Orchestra."

Anyone who is approached by people posing as students seeking donations for the UCSB orchestra is urged to contact the Goleta Police Department at (805) 681-4133 or the Santa Barbara Police Department at (805) 897-2300.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.