Winter Warmer

The plaza between Cheadle and Campbell halls became a holiday bazaar on Friday, Dec. 13, courtesy of the Third Annual Winter Warmer. From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., a variety of artisans — who also happen to be UCSB staff members — presented their work, which included handmade jewelry, knitted scarves and hats, pottery and ceramics, photography, and more. Visitors partook of freshly baked treats and warm beverages while perusing the arts and crafts created by their colleagues.

A.S. Food Bank collected donations, and those who brought food items received tickets for the Winter Warmer drawing.

The annual Winter Warmer is hosted by Staff Assembly, the Chancellors' Staff Advisory Council and the Academic Business Officers Group.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
