Fulfilling His Promise

Chancellor Henry T. Yang opened Storke Tower to UC Santa Barbara students on Friday, May 22, to fulfill the promise he made last year for the University of California Promise for Education campaign. It was part of UCSB First's Senior FUNDay festivities. As you can see from the photos, the event was a huge success, drawing hundreds of students who took the elevator up to the top of the tallest structure in Santa Barbara County. "Thank you for opening this up to us," one smiling student said as she got off the elevator with Yang.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
