Coming Together to Remember

More than 5,000 students gathered at Storke Plaza on Wednesday, Oct. 8, to hear a free concert by singer Jack Johnson, a UCSB alumnus, and to participate in "Come Together: Remember, Reconnect and Unite," an event sponsored by the Associated Students Program Board. The event was held in commemoration of the six students who lost their lives during the Isla Vista tragedy in May.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
