

UC SANTA BARBARA

THE Current

January 12, 2015
George Foulsham

In Memoriam: Sgt. Tony Borrayo

Funeral services were held on Friday, Jan. 9, for UC Santa Barbara Police Sgt. Jose Antonio “Tony” Borrayo, who passed away on Jan. 4, 2015.

Borrayo joined UCSB in 1994. Prior to becoming a police officer, he worked at the UCSB University Center and in Transportation & Parking Services. Borrayo was born and raised in Santa Barbara and graduated from Dos Pueblos High School before attending Santa Barbara City College.

“Sergeant Borrayo has left an indelible mark on our campus community, and he will be greatly missed,” said Chancellor Henry T. Yang in an email to the UCSB campus. “Sergeant Borrayo was admired and esteemed by his peers throughout Santa Barbara County, as evidenced by the vast array of awards and accolades he wore proudly on his uniform.”

Borrayo received the H. Thomas Guerry Award, Meritorious Unit Citation, Exceptional Service Citation, Police Officer of the Quarter and he earned a Supervisory Certificate from the California Peace Officers Standardized Training (POST).

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society.

All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.