

THE Current

July 8, 2018

Andrea Estrada

Holiday Fire Update

Monday, July 9

Santa Barbara County fire officials have announced containment of the Holiday Fire at 90 percent.

Sunday, July 8

As of 6 p.m., the remaining area under mandatory evacuation has been downgraded to an exclusionary zone, meaning it is open to residents only.

Saturday, July 7

- Santa Barbara County fire officials have announced containment of the Holiday Fire at 80 percent. As of 5 p.m., the mandatory evacuation order is downgraded to an evacuation warning for most areas. Mandatory evacuation will continue for those neighborhoods accessed via N. Fairview Avenue above the intersection with N. La Goleta Road. The Red Cross emergency shelter at the Goleta Community Center remains open.

- Information regarding air quality can be found at <https://www.ourair.org/todays-air-quality>.

Friday, July 6

- Santa Barbara County reports a fire north of campus in Goleta (north of Cathedral Oaks Road and Fairview Avenue). County fire officials are responding and the campus is not currently under any immediate physical threat, but campus officials are closely monitoring the situation and will provide updates as necessary.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.