

UC SANTA BARBARA

THE Current

August 5, 2019

Andrea Estrada

Statement on the Tragedies in Gilroy, El Paso and Dayton

Dear Members of our Campus Community,

We all have been horrified and deeply saddened by the news of the recent shootings in Gilroy, California; El Paso, Texas; and Dayton, Ohio. Our hearts go out to the victims and their loved ones.

These tragic events have become all too frequent. As a campus community, we stand in solidarity against hate and violence. We come together once again to express our care, concern, and support for each other and for all those affected by these tragedies.

If you need support during this difficult time, please know that we are here for you. Counseling for students is available through CAPS at (805) 893-4411; for faculty and staff, through our Academic & Staff Assistance Program at (805) 893-3318.

As a caring and supportive community, we continue to find strength in one another, and we rededicate ourselves as a campus that values and respects our richly diverse community.

Henry T. Yang

Chancellor

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.