COVID-19 Response Update

The campus will offer only remote instruction for spring quarter, and students who can safely leave are urged to do so and to take all of their personal items from their university-owned housing. This immediate action and several other proactive steps the university is taking to mitigate the potential impact of COVID-19 on campus, in Isla Vista and in the broader Santa Barbara community are detailed in Chancellor Yang's March 14 COVID-19 Response Update and New Spring Quarter Guidance. https://chancellor.ucsb.edu/memos/2020-03-14-covid-19-response-update-and-new-spring-quarter-guidance.

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
