UC SANTA BARBARA

THE Current

March 10, 2022
Shelly Leachman

Chancellor’s Statement on Ukraine

Chancellor Yang has issued the following statement on the situation in Ukraine:

We have been watching the recent events in Ukraine with deep sadness and dismay, and our hearts go out to all those in harm’s way. We stand in support of the people of Ukraine and everyone experiencing loss and hardship as a result of this conflict.

We know that members of our community may be affected in multiple ways by these events. We would like to take this opportunity to share some of our campus resources that are available to you.

For our students, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is available at 805-893-4411 (24 hours a day, seven days a week), or by submitting a CAPS Services Request.

Our Financial Crisis Response Team is available at financialcrisis@sa.ucsb.edu for students experiencing immediate financial needs.

For international students, our Office of International Students & Scholars can be reached at 805-893-2929 or oiss@sa.ucsb.edu.

For staff and faculty, our Academic & Staff Assistance Program can be reached at 805-893-3318 or asap@hr.ucsb.edu.

I appreciate what a caring and compassionate community we have here at UC Santa Barbara. We are here to help and support each other, and we all share a fervent wish for a peaceful and secure world.

Henry T. Yang

Chancellor

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.