The Current staff

A celebratory send-off

Four years after many of them missed out on a proper high school graduation ceremony, courtesy of Covid-19, the UC Santa Barbara Class of 2024 got a commencement befitting their achievement. From the gorgeous weather to the gregarious crowds who came to cheer them on, these newly minted alumni were celebrated in every way — and from every corner of campus — by their family and friends, by university faculty and staff, and by the entire Gaucho community.

Congrats, grads, you did it!

About UC Santa Barbara

The University of California, Santa Barbara is a leading research institution that also provides a comprehensive liberal arts learning experience. Our academic community of faculty, students, and staff is characterized by a culture of interdisciplinary collaboration that is responsive to the needs of our multicultural and global society. All of this takes place within a living and learning environment like no other, as we draw inspiration from the beauty and resources of our extraordinary location at the edge of the Pacific Ocean.
